Dallas Clark to be Featured Speaker at Easter Seals Crossroads Annual Business Lunch

Indianapolis, Ind. – Easter Seals Crossroads is pleased to announce that Dallas Clark, Tight End for the Indianapolis Colts, will be the featured speaker at the disability services agency's 47th Annual Business Lunch.

This always popular fundraiser will take place at 12:00 p.m. on Friday, March 7, at The Westin Indianapolis. Individual tickets are $75 and corporate sponsors for the Annual Business Lunch are still available. Major sponsors for this year's event include WISH-TV and The Westin Indianapolis.

Dallas Clark's college career began as a walk-on linebacker at the University of Iowa in 1999. In 2001, he made the switch to tight end and his career took off--leading to his first round selection in the 2003 NFL by the Indianapolis Colts. Clark started 13 games as a rookie and was an integral member of the 2006 Super Bowl Champion Team.

Annual Business Lunch emcee Anthony "A.C." Calhoun, Sports Anchor for WISH-TV, will conduct a candid interview with Dallas Clark, who is respected widely for his positive disposition and sense of sportsmanship. As in past years, the luncheon also will highlight Easter Seals Crossroads employment services for people with disabilities, and will feature the Easter Seals Crossroads Chalice Award winner and the 2008 Child Representative.

For more information about ticket and sponsorship availability, contact Bourke Patton at (317) 479-3249.

Since 1962, the Annual Business Lunch has benefited Easter Seals Crossroads, a community resource working in partnership with children and adults with disabilities or special needs and their families to promote growth, independence and dignity.
