

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2025 US Open Bowling Championship Returns to Indianapolis at Royal Pin Woodland

Indianapolis, IN – The pinnacle of bowling competition is coming to Indianapolis! The 2025 US Open Bowling Championship will be held at Royal Pin Woodland from January 26 to February 2, 2025.

Recognized as the most prestigious bowling event in the world, the US Open attracts the best bowling athletes from across the globe. With over 80 years of history, this iconic competition is a must-see event for sports enthusiasts and bowling fans alike.

Royal Pin Woodland, the only bowling center worldwide to have hosted every major PBA tournament, will serve as the backdrop for this historic event. Fans can experience the action during qualifying rounds open to the public all week long with an admission fee. Witness top athletes go head-to-head for glory!

The championship also features three ticketed events:

1. Bowl With the Pros: Compete alongside five PBA professionals and enjoy an exclusive meet-and-greet with autographs, photo opportunities, and more with a ball upgrade package.
2. Live TV Show on FS1: On Saturday, February 1, watch the thrilling competition as seeds 5-9 battle for the coveted stepladder finals spots.
3. Finals Event: The grand finale takes place on Sunday, February 2, promising a climactic finish to an unforgettable week as the players compete for the coveted green jacket.

Don't miss your chance to witness bowling history at Royal Pin Woodland! For tickets and additional information, visit royalpin.com/us-open.

Media Contact:

Emelie Watson
ewatson@royalpin.com
317-576-5174 x 208